

DITSONG MUSEUMS of South Africa is a National Museum based in Tshwane. It is a PMFA Schedule 3A public entity under the Department of Arts and Culture. The institution seeks to appoint a suitable person with relevant experience and qualifications for

Director: Ditsong National Museum of Natural History

The Ditsong National Museum of Natural History requires the services of a confident, inspirational leader with business acumen to take charge of the strategic aspects of the museum's operations. This role demands a Master's degree in Business Management/Administration or equivalent or in the relevant field of expertise, supported by a minimum of 10 years in a management position (at least 5 years at senior management/executive level). A Doctoral degree in Management will be an added advantage.

Key performance areas: • Strategic leadership, Museum Operations, • Customer relations management • Curatorial services • Performance management.

Requirements: • Knowledge of: - Business management principles; - Heritage management; - Government policy • Partnership management and fundraising • Analysis and problem-solving skills • Negotiation and networking skills • People and time management skills • Decision-making skills • Communication and facilitation skills • Relationship management skills • Fund-raising abilities • Programme and project management skills • Computer literacy • Business acumen • Accountability • Coordination skills • Commitment • Attention to detail • Ethics and sound integrity.

Knowledge of the natural sciences and archaeozoology will be an added advantage.

Enquiries: Vashen at Human Touch, tel. (011) 257-8010

Applications, accompanied by a comprehensive CV and copies of qualifications, should be sent to ditsong@human-touch.co.za

The closing date for applications is 24 March 2019.

Ditsong Museums of South African is an equal opportunity employer